Jordans Performs – Concert

Please come along to a lovely piano concert entitled "Notes from the Undergrowth" from rising star Hannah Watson Emmrich in Jordans Village Hall, March 14th, 7.30 pm (and with free drinks in interval!)

Hannah Watson Emmrich returns after her fabulous concert two years ago to offer us "Notes from the Undergrowth". For the programme, visit her webpage here:

<https://www.hannahwatsonemmrich.com/event-details-registration/notes-from-the-undergrowth-5>

A day and night in a forest ecosystem, told through a thematic programme of piano miniatures. With music foraged from the French baroque through to the present day, the programme follows a path through familiar territory and more overgrown corners of the piano repertoire.

Hannah's performances have included solo, chamber and song recitals at the Barbican, St Martin-in-the-Fields, LSO St Luke's, Cardiff's St David's Hall, St John's Smith Square and the Royal Festival Hall, as well as performances on Radio 3's In Tune and Afternoon on 3, and a scene in The Lady in the Van.

Alongside her performing work, she is currently music director for St Anselm's church Kennington and Norwich-based chamber choir Sine Nomine.

Every penny you give goes directly to pay the professional performers in our series and to cover costs. All organisers donate their time, and as always we provide free refreshments!

Tickets are available on the door if there's enough space but booking in advance is VERY helpful for us to manage seating and refreshments.

Thank you as always for your support!

Tickets available here!

Use the secure booking form below to get tickets for our upcoming concerts.
